My 7 Lucky Leprechauns:

1. I'm in a small and peaceful park in the heart of downtown. However, this place wasn't always peaceful- this park was created after a tornado damaged the buildings that were located here, back in 1984!
NAME: _____
2. I'm hiding under the oldest neon sign in downtown! This original sign belongs to one of downtown Newberry's longest running businesses. Can you find me?
NAME: _____
3. You might be surprised to learn, the tiny tunnel I'm hiding by used to be home to a burger bar more than 50 years ago! The place was so small it could only seat a few people at a time.
NAME: _____
4. I'm hiding in front of a grand building that was an automobile assembly plant in the 1930's! Now it's home to luxury apartments and retail space. Even the big car elevator still works on the inside!
NAME: _____
5. Have you heard of Newberry Made? This local artists' guild uses a unique feature on the side of the Old Newberry Hotel as their logo! Find me hiding under the "face" - the only one like it in downtown!
NAME: _____
6. Find me at this old pharmacy building, now home to downtown's oldest continuously operating restaurant! This restaurant was first opened in 1996 to serve the visitors of the then newly renovated Newberry Opera House.
NAME: _____
7. Find me hiding by the tallest monument in Memorial Park! Did you know? This memorial was honored by the British Royal Air Force in 2018 in memory of the 100th anniversary of the event. You can find the poppy wreath used at the honoring ceremony today at the Newberry Museum!
